In response to questions received in regard to the referenced Request for Quotations, the Contracting Officer is disseminating the following information.

Question 1:

We would like to know if it is possible to hire the chef who is currently working and it would be helpful if you could share the information about the chefs including treatment and background. Furthermore, may I ask how many people are currently operating?

We would like to have a better understanding regarding the current chef, such as her resume and salary; for our internal discussion about the possibility of having her in our company in the future.

Answer 1:

The U.S. Government is not allowed to disclose the previous contract pricing information, however the current contractor is receiving the same treatment per the current solicitation with regards to hours, breaks, days off and holidays.

Consequently, prospective quoters should review the requirements and terms and conditions included under this solicitation to arrive at their proposed prices. With regards to hiring of the current MSG chef, this is a matter between the winning bidder and the current chef.
